Please Note

As per published policy, Education Services Australia may contact the second referee to confirm primary function.

Declaration of primary function relates to the applying entity directly, not that of a project or program belonging to the applicant or the intended purpose, content or services to be made available on the proposed domain name(s).

Providing general services to entities within the education and training sector does not qualify as “related services” as referred to in the declaration. Entities primarily providing such services are not eligible, including but is not limited to:

- stationary, uniform, book or other supply services
- information technology, software or website development services
- marketing, referral, administration or financial services

National interests and responsibilities are only required if seeking to register a third level (national level) domain name. Representing a group within a single state or territory jurisdiction at a national level, a single state or territory based entity being a member of a national body or association, and international delivery of education or training services are not considered to be national interests and responsibilities.

In addition to completing this form, the proposed domain name(s) must also meet the allocation criteria outlined in Schedule 2 of the Registration Policy in order to be approved.

All domain name licences are issued subject to mandatory terms and conditions and published policies. Non-compliance with such terms and conditions or published policies may lead to the cancellation of a domain name licence. Please see www.domainname.edu.au/policy.htm for full details.

Terminology

Applicant: the legal entity put forward as the registrant for the proposed domain name(s)
Licence-holder: the legal entity currently listed as the registrant for a domain name in the registry database
